“David, I just wanted to take the opportunity to offer my continued support to you and to The Chrysalis Programme in the UK. When I first heard about the programme I was excited by the potential, and the fact that you have maintained the momentum since then is a great tribute to you, and those who have supported you. The potential for us to make a contribution by reducing crime in our society, and in particular the re-offending rate amongst young people who get ‘caught up in the system’, is a topic close to my own heart. We at Franklin Covey offer you our support and our best wishes to make a great success of this initiative”

Dr Stephen R Covey

“The Chrysalis Programme is much more than just a personal development course” Tony
