

Testimonials

Chrysalis In Schools

"David has a very special way of connecting himself with the pupils, they really listened and absorbed what he was trying to teach, at the same time keeping it fun.

As you can see from the above they/ really gained a lot from your lesson. Some great results.

Adam Gibson (Legacy Founder)

"David, I just wanted to take the opportunity to offer my continued support to you and to The Chrysalis Programme..."

When I first heard about the programme I was excited by the potential, and the fact that you have maintained the momentum since then is a great tribute to you, and those who have supported you.

We at Franklin Covey offer you our support and our best wishes to make a great success of this initiative"

Dr Stephen R Covey
